Dear Resident

Robert has lived in rural East Meon for 17 years and understands the benefits and challenges of living in a rural community on the edge of Petersfield. He has been the District Councillor for East Meon, Buriton and Langrish for two years, working hard for local residents. He intends to combine the two roles, believing local council services should be seamless, with no differentiation between Town/Parish, District and County Services. Working closely with all three tiers of local government will mean a better service for residents.

HCC has four strategic priorities: health & well-being, economic growth, developing local communities and increasing efficiency. Robert has been actively involved in the first of these for 15 years, coaching children at Petersfield Rugby Club. As club secretary he has driven improvement in the club's facilities so that it can offer first-rate opportunities for more children and adults to stay healthy and worked closely with all local secondary schools. This is one example of how commitment and drive can make a difference to our community.

Robert believes good local government can make a positive difference to residents' lives. He plans to bring enthusiasm, commitment and leadership to the role.

SOUTH DOWNS NATIONAL PARK

Most of our division sits in the beautiful South Downs National Park. Robert believes that the special characteristics of our communities, urban and rural, should be conserved and enhanced for the benefit of local residents, local workers and visitors.

He sits on the SDNP Authority on behalf of East Hampshire District Council. He has taken part in important planning decisions that have both approved significant housing schemes in Petersfield, and also rejected unacceptable overdevelopment in the local area. He believes that the SDNP will bring real value to us all over the coming decades.

One purpose of the SDNP is educating all residents about its special qualities and it has a duty to foster the economic and social well-being of the area.

A PETERSFIELD TEAM

Robert has worked closely with the local parish councils for the past two years, developing a strong working relationship with them. He has sat on the PTC Development Committee since its start, working hard to implement the Petersfield Neighbourhood Plan approved by local residents.

WORKING AS A TEAM IN CLANFIELD

Fully integrating the residents from the new houses into the community will be an exciting opportunity for all involved in local government in Clanfield, especially making full use of the new community infrastructure.
